ABOUT ME

Hi! I'm Santi, a future Full Stack Developer currently being trained at SoyHenry. From Google courses to FreeCodeCamp, my journey is centered around mastering comprehensive web development. I'm seeking to join dynamic teams in innovative projects that create a positive impact on users. My passion for learning, effective communication, and teamwork makes me an ideal candidate, backed by strong knowledge in JavaScript, HTML, CSS, React, Redux, Node, Git, and GitHub.
